1. Purpose

- 1.1 The Whistleblower Policy (the “Policy”) aims to strengthen the corporate commitment to maintain the highest standards of business conduct and ethics, adherence to leading business practices and compliance with the applicable laws and regulations. The Policy covers all entities and business units within/affiliated to the Company.
- 1.2 This policy aims to encourage and enable employees and other stakeholders to raise matters to the Company by providing a framework to promote responsible and secure whistleblowing without any fear of retaliation. The whistleblower service is managed by a reputed external independent third-party (the “Service Provider”), who will ensure confidentiality and anonymity of the Whistleblower.
- 1.3 All entities within the business are required to observe and implement this policy. Any exemption requires the approval from the Chief Audit Executive.
- 1.4 This Policy is committed to ensure and uphold an environment where open, honest communication is the norm and that all employees and other stakeholders feel comfortable in raising “Reportable Matters” (Refer section 3 for definitions).

2. Scope

- 2.1 The whistleblower channels are available to:
  - a. All GEMS employees including but not limited to, directors, officers, teaching and non-teaching employees, including temporary, contracted, secondees and outsourced employees (the “Employees”); and

- 2.2 The Whistleblower Hotline is designed and operated in a manner to ensure that anyone who reports an issue and wishes to remain anonymous can choose to do so. Any matters reported to the Whistleblower hotline which are assessed by the Committee to constitute staff grievances will be passed to the HR department to manage through the usual Grievance process as outlined in the Employee Grievance Policy. The process and timelines outlined in this Policy will therefore not apply.
